

DOAN'S PILLS

Scenes and Persons in the Current News

Thirty-five thousand farmers gathered at Fremont, Neb., to hear President Roosevelt speak from the rear platform of his car as he was journeying to the west coast. He was given an enthusiastic welcome.

paigned in that part of the country of the Allegheny mountains. In charge of this office is Harrison E. Spence, national committeeman for Iowa, who was chairman of the recent "Cotton Roots" conference in Springfield.

The Women's Mission Work in Sweden, which recently celebrated its fortieth anniversary, is believed to be the first and perhaps the largest missionary society composed entirely of women. Its workers are found among the Lapps of northern Lapland and the Chinese and Japanese of Mongolia and Congo, North Africa and the Middle East.
